

7r	15270507
	Morden	View of Frankpledge with Court of William Porter tenant of the manor aforesaid for a term of years by grant of John, abbot of the monastery of blessed Peter, Westminster, at the same place held Tuesday namely Hoctwesday [sic] 7 May 19 Henry VIII.
1		John Playstowe constable.

2	head titheingman common fine 16d	John Tyler, head titheingman at the same place, sworn, comes with his whole titheing and proffers the lord for common fine per head in his titheing at this day 16d. And furthermore of his office he presents that William Woodman by grace of this court has a further day to scour six perches of ditch in the king's great highway [in magna regia via] towards [erga] Parkland. Also a new day is granted to him. And that the order is given to John Holt to sufficiently scour 12 perches of ditch in the king's great highway towards [erga] Lotkyns before Michaelmas under penalty of 3s 4d. And that, just as at another time [sicut alias], the order is given to John Hyller and William Tegge to sufficiently scour their ditch in Hykstrete towards [erga] their land at the same place under penalty each of them 3s 4d before Michaelmas aforesaid. And that, just as at another time [sicut alias] the order is given to John Hyller to scour his ditch in the king's great highway towards [erga] Hungerhill before the said feast under penalty of 3s 4d.
3	amercement 2d	Likewise they present that William Tegge ^{2d} has defaulted the View. Therefore he is in mercy.
4	aletaster	George Sturmy, aletaster at the same place, sworn, comes and presents that Richard Cosyn is a beerseller and sells by illegal and unsealed measures. Therefore he is in mercy. And that William Tegge is a beerseller and sells by unsealed measures and did not put out a sign. Therefore the order is given to him to put out [exponere] his sign [signu'] immediately [incontinenter] under penalty of 3s 4d.

5	12 jurors for the lord king	John Holt, John Playstowe, William Woodman, William Tegge, sworn. John Saye, James Brounyng, Robert Huytt, sworn. Robert Bele, Roger Woodnett, Richard Cosyn, sworn.
6		Who say upon their oath that William Woodman's penalty is suspended by the grace of the court he has a further day to scour his ditch on both sides of Growtes Lane towards [erga] Berwells. And a new day is given to him before Michaelmas next under penalty of 3s 4d. And that the order is given to William Tegge to scour his ditch towards [erga] his bridge before the feast of Pentecost next under penalty of 20d.
7	strays proclamation	At this court third proclamation was made if anyone should come to claim one lamb come as a stray for a complete year and a day and none came. Therefore it is adjudged to the lord and it is appraised.
8	for the setting right of pigs	It is ordained and agreed between all the inhabitants, neighbours [vicinos'] and tenants to ring their pigs each year at the feast of St Edward and to so keep them set right until the feast of the Purification of the blessed virgin Mary under penalty for each pig not set right 2d.

		Modo de x m ^o
		at homage of me & my wife & son & on John Playstowe & Ralph Bayly & John Holt & John Hiller John Cosyn & all jure
10	claim Le Held'	At this court third proclamation was made if John Smythe and Margaret his wife, daughter and nearest heir of Elizabeth late wife of Richard Camryngham, or any other, wishes to come to claim one vacant piece of land late built and 2 acres of land lying in Le Held', formerly William Mully, of which the aforesaid Elizabeth died seised, according to the custom of the manor. And so it remains in the lord's hand until etc. But now comes a certain Ralph Bayly and Johanna his wife and lay claim to the aforesaid land.

		Now of the Court
9		The homage of this court, namely George Lord, John Playstowe, Ralph Bayly, John Holt, John Hiller, Richard Cosyn, each sworn.
10	claim Le Held'	At this court third proclamation was made if John Smythe and Margaret his wife, daughter and nearest heir of Elizabeth late wife of Richard Camryngham, or any other, wishes to come to claim one vacant piece of land late built and 2 acres of land lying in Le Held', formerly William Mully, of which the aforesaid Elizabeth died seised, according to the custom of the manor. And so it remains in the lord's hand until etc. But now comes a certain Ralph Bayly and Johanna his wife and lay claim to the aforesaid land.